

Words of Wisdom

VOLUME IV

From the Spirit

Casting Out Devils

To 'cast out devils' is to bring light to darkness. The word, evil spelled in reverse is live. When you change direction, it is then that the light that I am, shines in you. Evil is not of a spirit for I have created not, bad spirit. Can you walk into darkness without light? I am the light in all of my creation, for the light that I am, is the tools I place before you to be happy.

When you turn a light on in your house do you cast out a devil? No. But you use a gift of knowledge that I am, to see your way. I say unto you when you know that I am, as you know where the light switch is...that is a gift of Me. It is that easy to see darkness no more. The freedom of choice between light and darkness is the same that I give you to leave the lights on always in your house.

But man measures energy that is a gift of Me for all by selling it by particle. It is why he will let man be in darkness unless he pays for the gift I gave to all. I am the Source that will never run out; that you could never turn off; and that would benefit you forever, at no cost. Yet you use Me not. What a waste of your own energy for you live in darkness.

...is in motion all are turned off. The old saying that 'it takes one to begin and they all follow'! It takes such little effort to have a motion going. A good idea is always attracting to people. It is, for Spirit that I am is love that you give. When you live by Me, not even death is of pain. Therefore how can anything of life be painful? When pain finds you, it is that you stopped a good motion at its peak.

You cannot, like a motor function forever without the essential nutrients of lubrication - that is the participation of your fellow man. It is called manpower - a unity of strength that has no excess of strain for functioning but by one.

A train with all its power could not pull all the boxcars if they are all on brakes. It causes friction. All must be in motion. The engine starts the motion, but what follows resists no more. You then have a true participation where all are equal. My Spirit is the lubricant in all of you who get the energy, the power out of mostly the food, the nutrient that gives motion by knowledge for I am the love within all of you.

You all are 'locomotive' for I am the Life in all of you. Find My Energy in one another so the motion will be forever, for I am forever in you. I am negative and positive for I function with you. Alpha-Omega.

The Worshipping of False Gods

The many false gods of men are so many that it would take a simple word such as all of creation to describe it very vastly.

The very false god that man worships most is himself. Man is the greatest illusionist of all of creation. He believes that he is so godly that all shall bow down to worship him. Yet in his illusion-fantasy he creates other gods that he manipulates to his own worship.

Woman has become a sexual goddess that man worships in his evil mind as a toy of the false king that he is. Without laws of protecting that false god that woman has been made for the pleasure of the fool that man has become, and also of the foolish woman that has made herself believe to be a goddess of the fool that man is - all is crumbling before the eyes of both fools that man and woman have become.

The perversion of the mind has allowed the fools to worship each other's reproductive organs as instruments of devastating pleasures that deteriorates the true learning ability of the power of love that is the true look of the image and resemblance of the Creator, (THE ONLY TRUE GOD – KING of kings, that we all are to be in HIS KINGDOM) not 'condom'. Woman that participates in that destruction of the Kingship of the true God by allowing herself to be used in sexual perversion either by using her Godly gift of beauty to cause man to drift away from his only as well as her only TRUE GOD, will have to answer to this very ONLY GOD very soon.

The perverted mind of man, that places woman in a position to have to result to such actions, will find itself in a state of confusion and anger that has already begun to show in the rash of violence against women and children. Those who allow themselves to the worshipping of such false gods as sexual acts, perversion of the minds (either by actions or thoughts), greed, selfishness, pride, hatred, jealousy, anger – will perish in their very actions while bringing down the whole of society with them.

Alcohol and drugs have also become the false gods of the majority of people. You cannot place alcohol and drugs before your God as an excuse for your problems that you have created. You all know that the true God that I am, is merciful and of great forgiving and loving nature. You have allowed these false gods to overtake the true gift of Life that I give you every second that you breathe. You cannot worship such substances as your 'god' while you know Me to love you and give you so abundantly.

You are no better than the ones living by the pleasures of the filth that has been made of reproduction. Do you now also use alcohol and drugs to be into the perversion of sex? Do not many of you use sex to procure yourself such false gods as alcohol and drugs? Then indulge yourself in combining alcohol and drugs perversion. Aids, as all other sexual diseases have originated from perversion.

*Sex is now taught in schools as well as on TV as an 'educational criteria'. Respect for women and children that you all are, He says, is totally ignored and have no values. The true criteria of happiness are the 10 rules of the commandments. It seems so hard, yet it is all in one, that says, *Love one another as I love you (and then respect them all).

I love you My children. Are you not descendants of the same father and mother, Adam and Eve? It is why before you, one came. Yet many came and are still coming, leaving great marks on the world by the example of respect and love for you as well as for I the Father above.

You cast out of your most important institutions (the schools) the privilege of giving the true knowledge of the true Father that I am. In your courts, you place prayers of your God on trial while using the bible as a sacred tool of justice while using it to destroy the true love and respect that your Elder Brother had for the Father that I am.

'Be like children' for you all are - to Me, your Father above. Are you not in this Kingdom that is now being prepared for you from the foundation of the world? Yes. I say unto you, 'The hour is so near.' Worry not about wealth that will soon perish. All will pass and I shall remain. Is the condition of your soul not more important than that of your outer self that will also perish in the absence of the Eternal Source of Eternal Life that I am?

The true beauty of one is not noticeable to the fool who cannot see while having been given sight that he or she refuse, in refusing the Father that I am in all of you. Is it not written and continuously said that I am with you always – in all ways?

Money is the worst of all false gods of men. He procures himself, even slaves, while claiming to be in a civilized world. Oppressors that you all are! Thieves! With your false god of money you control the lives of others while glorifying yourself as to be generous! Do I measure in the abundance of my creation? Do I not cause food to grow? Do you not place quotas to limit the abundance of my creation? Wait not for me to devastate your crops to give you to show the no power of your false god, money.

The time is upon you who challenge the power of the Father that I am in all of you. Your greed is now causing you to worry and collapse in your ivory towers of your world banking system. You will soon find yourself running from your positions in fear to be caught in them.

You will soon, very soon, answer to your Master that I am. You call Me the curse of your enemy as if I favor you over others. All that have come before you glorifying themselves as to be favored by Me as 'special men' in the bible – dying, leaving great wealth to their children and families: they claim to have been given by Me, the Father to erect temples of no values in which they lived in as to be favored by Me, the Father. All will be accounted for soon. I have never commanded man to take weapons against his fellow man. Did I not part the Red Sea to show that it is best to walk away from confrontation than to indulge in it?

One was made a great king – David, for killing a giant with a stone. Yet to this very king I said, 'You will never build a temple to your God that I am, for you were a man of war.' His son, Solomon took many wives while building the temple while I commanded Abraham to leave a second wife, Hagar, for it was adultery. The young, rich man was told, 'Rid yourself of all you have and you shall see the Kingdom of Heaven.' You thieves, in your blindness you gather great wealth while indulging into acts of perversions and weeping publicly and craving for more within your heart.

All is now crumbling before your eyes (and your self-appointed god that you have made yourself be) is now deteriorating at a speed that makes you believe you have time. I measure not time, for I am forever. Time is a measure of man. It is why he has never enough of it. The time is now to repent and to come to Me...
